LC Men's Lacrosse team fought hard with Hendrix before losing their momentum in the 4th, dropping to a 2-4 record (March 1).

First Half Details

The Panther offense was first to score on this rainy game night with freshman Luke Young leading the charge. After a brief battle, the quarter would end in a close 3-2 for Lagrange. The second quarter was a quick-moving game with several goals and a two-man down defense that managed to keep Hendrix from scoring. The half would find the two teams at 7-8 in favor of Hendrix.

Second Half Details

In the third quarter, the Panthers took the lead with a couple of quick goals by Young, followed by four consecutive goals from Hendrix's offense. Junior Ryan Comeau would end the quarter on a goal, making the score 10-12. The Panthers struggled to close the gap in the fourth quarter. After a goal by junior Holden Samuels, the Panthers faltered defensively, letting in three consecutive goals. The teams would each score a last goal before the game was called, making the score 12-16 in favor of Hendrix. Senior Lucas Webb was in goal for the Panthers tonight, making 9 saves.

Next Game

The Panthers hit the road once more to face off against Birmingham-Southern next Thursday (March 7) at 5 p.m.
